Written answers and screenshots from my Kali Linux VM.

Part 1 — System Information

Step 1 — Who am I and where am I?

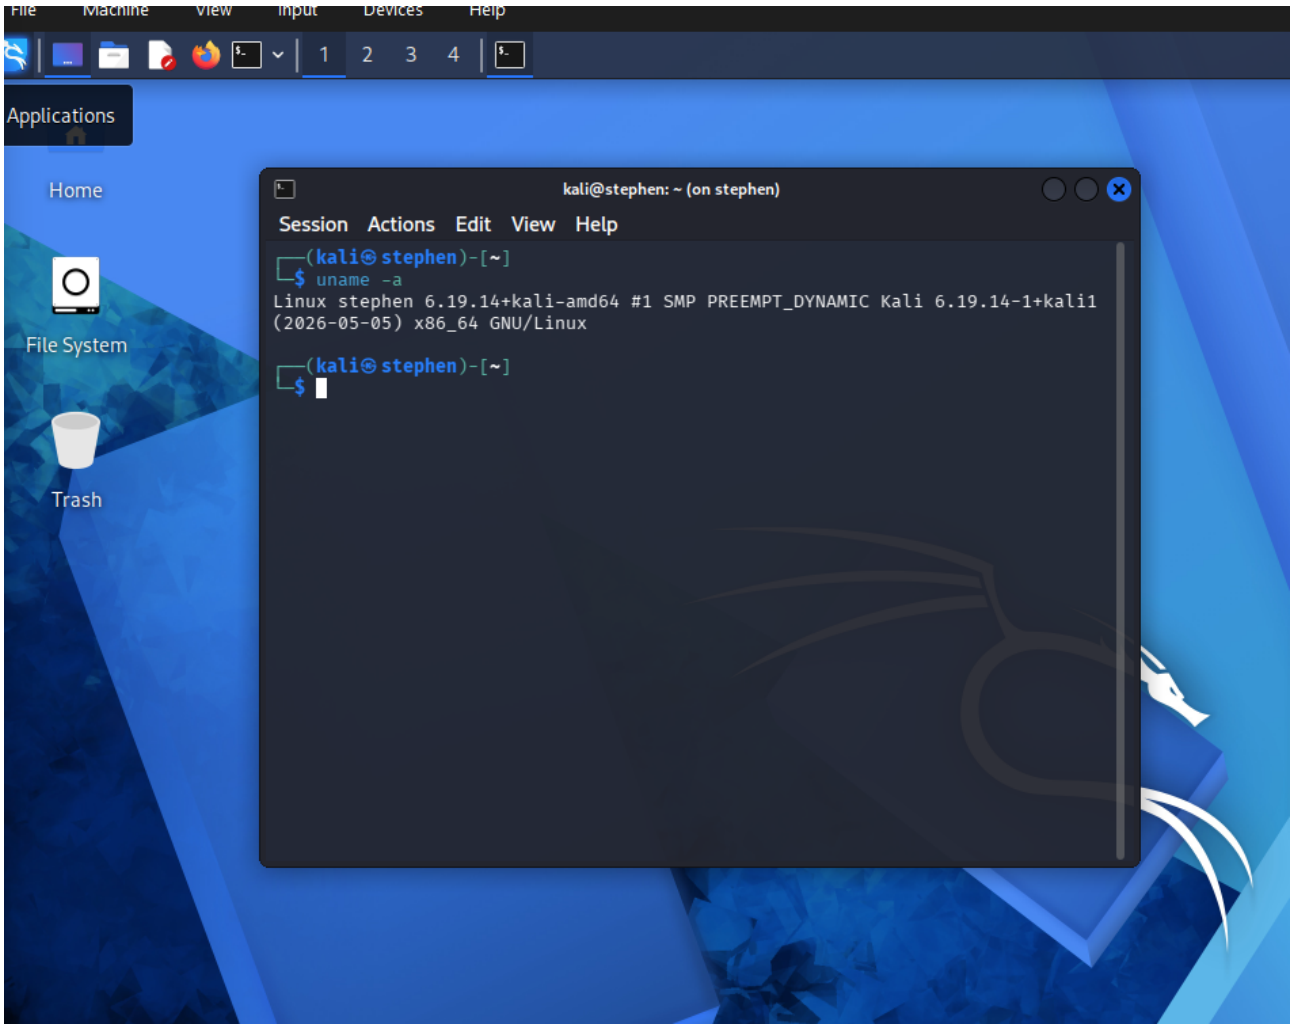

Username: kali
Hostname: stephen
Current working directory: /home/kali

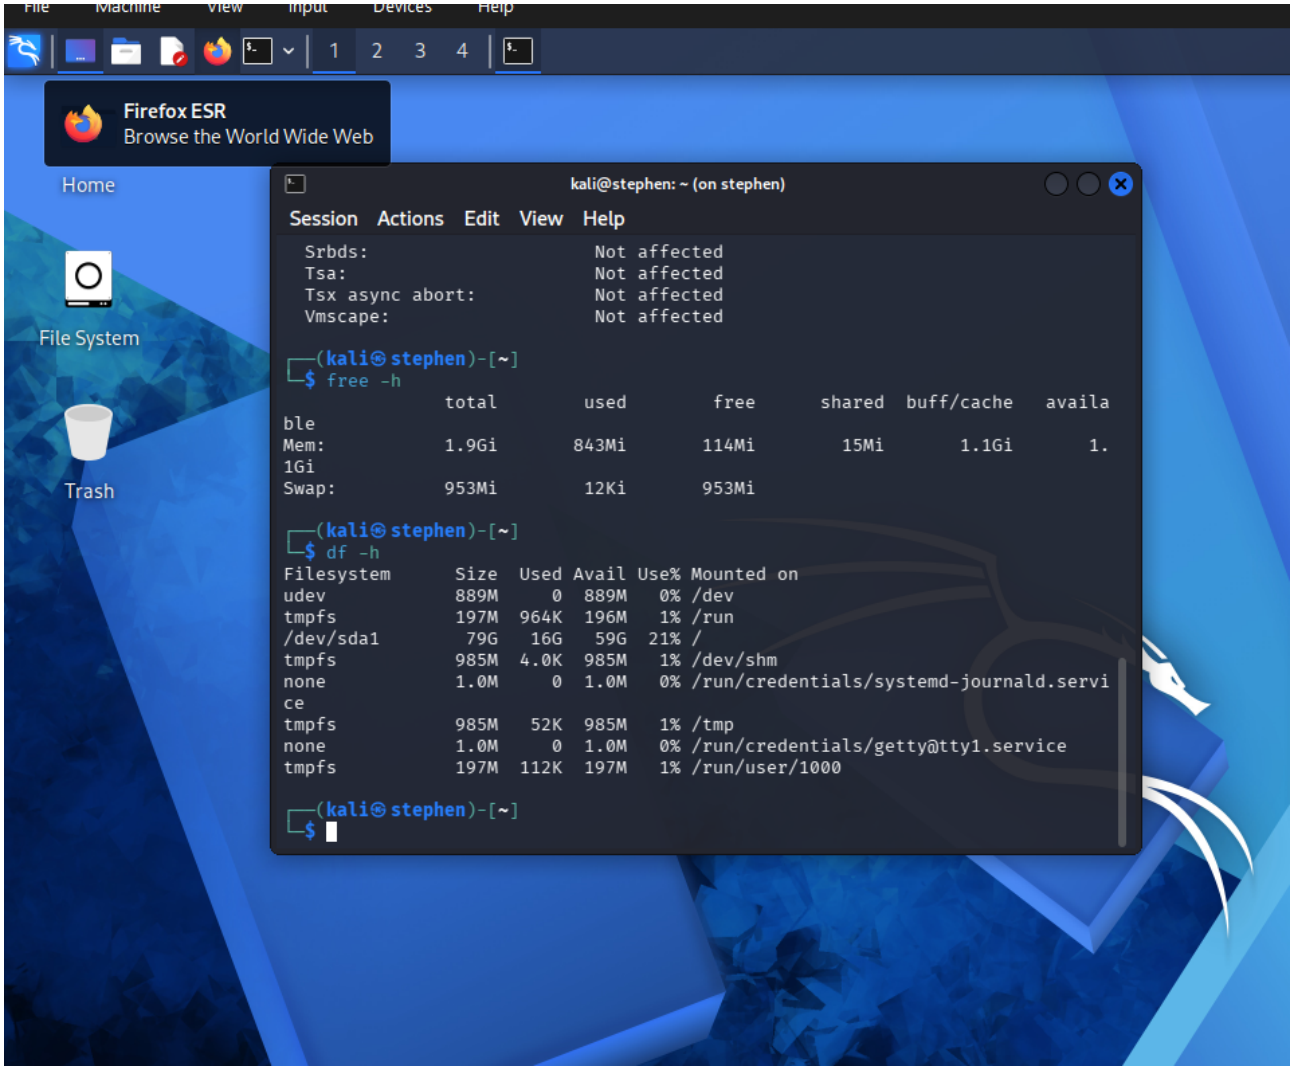

Evidence — whoami, hostname and pwd

Step 2 — Operating System & Hardware Information

Linux kernel version: 6.19.14+kali-amd64
Total RAM: 1.9 GiB
Available disk space on the main /dev/sda1 partition: 59G

Evidence — uname -a

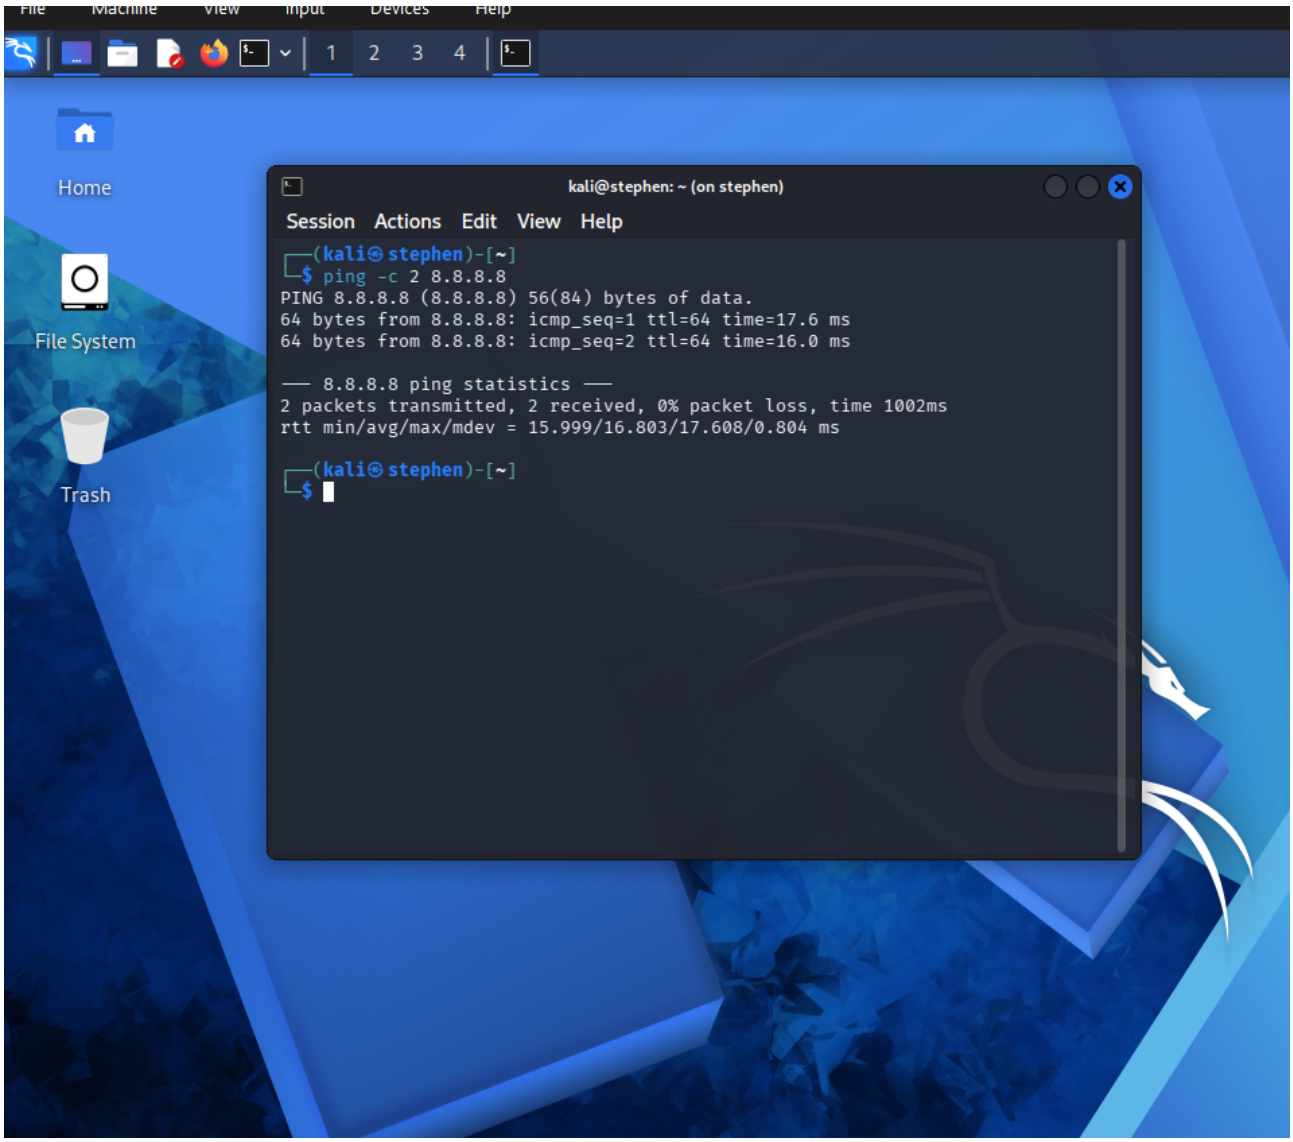

Evidence — free -h and df -h

Part 2 — Basic Network Connectivity Test

Step 1 — Ping a known IP address

IP tested: 8.8.8.8
Packets transmitted: 2
Packets received: 2
Packet loss: 0%
Average round-trip time: 16.803 ms

There was no packet loss. All 2 packets were successfully received, resulting in 0% packet loss. The average round-trip time was 16.803 ms.

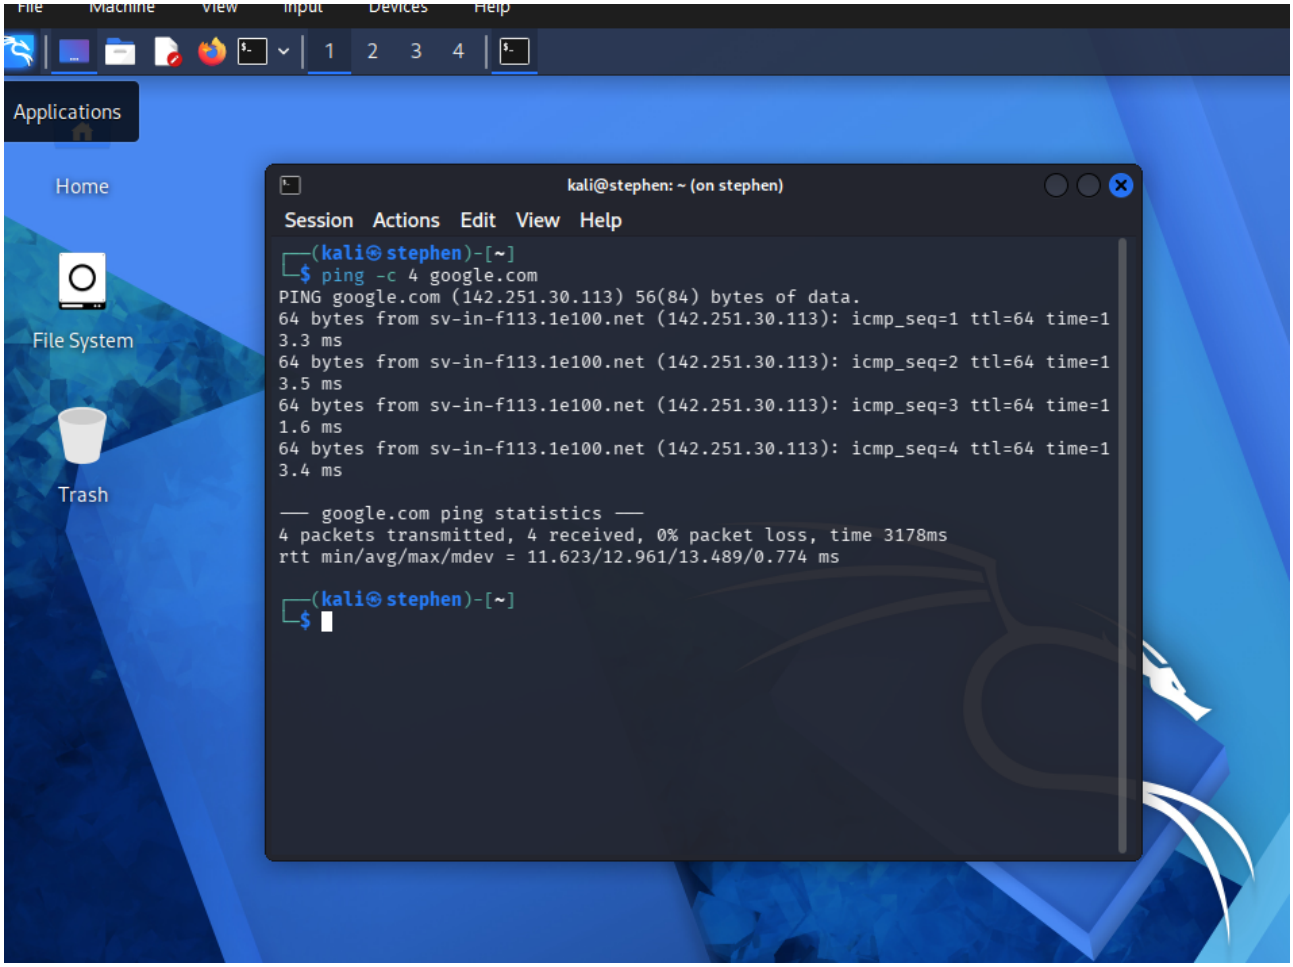

Evidence — ping -c 2 8.8.8.8

Step 2 — Ping a domain name

Domain tested: google.com
Resolved IP address: 142.251.30.113
Packets transmitted: 4
Packets received: 4
Packet loss: 0%
Average round-trip time: 12.961 ms

The average round-trip time to google.com was 12.961 ms, compared with 16.803 ms for 8.8.8.8. Therefore, the google.com test had a lower average round-trip time in this test.

What does -c 4 mean? The -c 4 option tells the ping command to send four packets and then stop.

Evidence — ping -c 4 google.com
